

SCHOOL RULES

Dear Students,

This set of rules will help you to make your living with others more pleasant and comfortable. The way you get along with your fellow students and the respect you have for teachers, staff and the school property reveal your personality. Your cooperation and unique contribution will help the school run smoothly to the satisfaction of both teachers and students. Education is a joint venture!

Read the following rules carefully and comply to these to make education FRUITFUL:

1. Try to be punctual always. When the first bell rings in the morning, walk to your line and stand there in silence. After the assembly, proceed to your class room in line, in silence.
2. School uniform, must be worn at all times. If the student is not wearing the correct uniform, warning letters will be issued as per MoE behavioral policy.
3. It is one of your special duties to help keep the classroom neat and tidy. Avoid throwing paper on the floor or out of window, don't scribble on the desks or walls.
4. Students are not permitted to eat or drink in class. Chewing gum is strictly forbidden in school.
5. Books, Magazines and CDs not connected with schoolwork should be left at home. But remember to bring all necessary text books to school.
6. Take care of extra books and learning materials lent to you and return them to the teacher on completion of work. In the same way, take care of library books or books of reference.
7. Students may buy books from the book store only during break.
8. During lesson time and in between lessons, student must remain in their classrooms.

They must not wander about outside. If a teacher is absent or late, after five minutes of the beginning of that class the CLASS MONITOR must inform at
